GENERAL INFORMATION

4. Registration Process

Students are considered for admission when the Admission form has been completed and submitted. Admission and entry is subject to performance in placement tests and interview, availability for place, and satisfaction of admission requirements at the time. Any offer is conditional on the acceptance of the School's Terms and Conditions, which we reserve the right to vary when necessary. Parents and students are advised to study a copy of the School's Regulations and Prospectus which describes the policies, aims and ethos of the School. The Prospectus and Admission form do not form part of the agreement between the parents and the School.
